Dear Mayor Andre Pierre,

Grace and peace to you from our Lord Jesus Christ!

I want to thank you, your staff, city staff and the rest of the city council for the work you have accomplished and continue to do on behalf of our great city of North Miami. I have seen much progress in the last 4 years. Thank you!

Our church (*Impact Miami Churc*h) with the partnership of other local North Miami churches, well as Mission Miami who sponsors the annual Jesus March (www.missiomiami.com) is seeking to hold a National Day of Prayer Rally on May 2nd, 2013, 7:00-9:00 p.m. at the Courtyard of North Miami City Hall.

The event will be coordinated by me (Jack Hakimian) and officially sponsored by our church Impact Miami Church (www.impactmiami.org).

The National Day of Prayer is an annual day of observance held on the first Thursday of May, designated by the United States Congress, when people are asked "to turn to God in prayer and meditation". Each year, the president signs a proclamation, encouraging all Americans to pray on this day (Source: http://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press-office/2012/05/01/presidential-proclamation-national-day-prayer-2012).

The modern law formalizing its annual observance was enacted in 1952, although it has historical origins to a mandate by George Washington, the first president of the United States. Many municipalities, civic institutions and churches will be celebrating this national tradition.

In response to this inter-denominational prayer event we are asking that the city of North Miami:

1. Designate the courtyard exclusively for this rally on May 2nd 7:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m.
2. Designate the city stage, sound equipment and technical staff for this rally.
3. Optional: Designate a Council Member to present an official city proclamation at the beginning of the event that the Great City of North Miami recognizes the National Day of Prayer and the important role faith and prayer makes in our nation and local cities. This can be done in the same manner as the President's Proclamation on the same day. We would coordinate with your office who that Council member would be.

We believe this will be a positive, safe and orderly event that will enrich the spiritual life of our city and nation. If you have any questions please free to contact me as the anytime, or email me directly at jack@impactmiami.org. I have attached proof of our non-profit status.

In His Service,

Jack Hakimian
Pastor

Important Information for Exempt Organizations

1. You must provide all vendors and suppliers with an exemption certificate before making tax-exempt purchases. See Rule 12A-1.038, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.).

2. Your Consumer's Certificate of Exemption is to be used solely by your organization for your organization's customary nonprofit activities.

3. Purchases made by an individual on behalf of the organization are taxable, even if the individual will be reimbursed by the organization.

4. This exemption applies only to purchases your organization makes. The sale or lease to others of tangible personal property, sleeping accommodations, or other real property is taxable. Your organization must register, and collect and remit sales and use tax on such taxable transactions. Note: Churches are exempt from this requirement except when they are the lessor of real property (Rule 12A-1.070, F.A.C.).

5. It is a criminal offense to fraudulently present this certificate to evade the payment of sales tax. Under no circumstances should this certificate be used for the personal benefit of any individual. Violators will be liable for payment of the sales tax plus a penalty of 200% of the tax, and may be subject to conviction of a third-degree felony. Any violation will require the revocation of this certificate.

6. If you have questions regarding your exemption certificate, please contact the Exemption Unit of Account Management at 800-352-3671. From the available options, select "Registration of Taxes," then "Registration Information," and finally "Exemption Certificates and Nonprofit Entities." The mailing address is PO Box 6480, Tallahassee, FL 32314-6480.

Gentlemen:

Based on the information supplied, we rule that you and your affiliated churches and institutions named on the group exemption roster you submitted are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

You and your affiliated churches and institutions are not required to file Federal income tax returns.

It will not be necessary for you and your affiliated churches and institutions to file the annual return of information, Form 990-A, generally required of organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as you and your exempt affiliated churches and institutions come within the specific exception contained in section 6033(a) of the Code.

Donors may deduct contributions to you or your affiliated churches and institutions as provided by section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to or for the use of you and your affiliated churches and institutions are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes under section 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

You and your affiliated churches and institutions are not liable for Federal unemployment taxes. You and your affiliated churches and institutions are liable for social security taxes only if you and your affiliated churches and institutions have filed waiver of exemption certificates, as provided in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. (Your District Director will be glad to tell you more about the latter point.)

Florida Baptist State Convention

Each year, within 45 days after your annual accounting period closes, please send us two copies of the following information about your affiliated churches and institutions.

1. A statement describing any changes during the year in the purposes, character, or method of operation of your affiliated churches and institutions.

2. A list of the names, mailing addresses including ZIP Codes of churches and institutions on your group exemption roster that during the year:

   a. changed names or addresses;
   b. were deleted from the roster;
   c. were added to the roster.

A director of affiliated churches and institutions may be substituted for this list if it includes the required information and identifies the affected churches and institutions according to the three categories above.

3. For churches and other institutions added to the roster, a letter signed by one of your principal officers containing or attaching:

   A. A statement that the information upon which your present group exemption letter is based applies to the new churches and institutions;

   B. A statement that each has given you written authorization to add its name to the roster;

   C. A list of those which the Service previously issued rulings or determination letters relating to exemption.

4. If applicable, a statement that your group exemption roster did not change during the year.

Please show your Employer Identification Number on all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

Florida Baptist State Convention

This ruling supersedes our ruling to you dated August 18, 1934. This ruling also supersedes our rulings to Florida Baptist Foundation and Baptist Bible Institute dated February 13, 1957 and November 5, 1963 respectively.

You should advise each of your exempt affiliated churches and institutions of the exemption and the pertinent provisions of this ruling.

We are notifying your District Director, Jacksonville, Florida.

Very truly yours,

John R. Barbes
