TRAFFIC ALERT

CRITICAL MASS BIKE RIDE WILL AFFECT TRAFFIC TONIGHT IN DOWNTOWN NORTH MIAMI

Friday, September 25, 2015
7:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

The Miami Critical Mass bicycle ride will make its way East of NW 119 Street, North on West Dixie Highway, East on NE 125 Street and then South on Biscayne Boulevard, tonight affecting traffic in the North Miami area. The mass of cyclists – which could be as many as a few thousand – will impact North Miami traffic between the hours of 7:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. Similar to the City's monthly Get in Gear Community bike ride, this event is not a race but a ride organized by the Miami Bike Scene, a non-governmental agency. The bike ride participants are of various ages and skills. Therefore, expect heavy traffic delays as streets may be impacted for up to three hours. Please plan your evening accordingly.

North Miami Police, City of Miami Police, Miami-Dade Police Intracoastal and North Side Districts will have officers at key intersections throughout the routes to ensure traffic saftey.
